The Paris correspondent of the Daily News so gives a similar ramor, derived both from rench and American sources, and says the wo governments are giving serious consideraon to the question of intervention in common. The Landon Times adopts as its own the reent remarks of Mr. Gladstone on the American question at Manchester. It admits that the cirmunitances attending the secession were suffi-tion excuse for mabness. It was always ready to make allowance for northerners, if they would ion as a scoural power. It claims that Eng-and has observed a most disinterested and selfmying course, and concludes by asserting that he real question rests entirely on whether the
